

Connecticut Association of Schools Awards Principal Joe Scheideler its Highest Honor

The Connecticut Association of Schools (CAS) has recognized Canton's Middle School Principal, Joseph Scheideler, for "outstanding leadership, exemplary commitment, and extraordinary contributions" to its organization. The CAS award was presented on December 19th. In the past 10 years, Joe Scheideler has served on the Middle Level Leadership Conference Committee and the Middle School Board of Control and had been the Chair of those two committees for the past six years. He's also served on the CAS Board of Directors since 2006. The citation names five additional committees and acknowledges that Mr. Scheideler has "evolved into one of the most loyal and committed members in the history of the CAS Middle School division." Canton has enjoyed that same level of vision and commitment to middle level reform and joins CAS in congratulating Mr. Scheideler on this achievement.
