

Join One of our Yahoo Newsgroups Today!

These newsgroups are for parents and guardians of CHS students. They are maintained by volunteers, not school personnel. The purpose is to connect parents with each other and share information or ask questions regarding our children and the school.

Additional places to get information can be found on the Canton High School webpage at www.cantonschools.org/chs/ by clicking on the Daily Announcements or Monthly Newsletters.

Parents/Guardians of students in the Class of 2012 (Freshmen), click here to join this group, then follow the directions below:

<http://groups.yahoo.com/group/chsclassof2012/>

Parents/Guardians of students in the Class of 2011 (Sophomores), click here to join this group, then follow the directions below:

<http://groups.yahoo.com/group/chsclassof2011parents/>

Parents/Guardians of Students in the Class of 2010 (Juniors), click here to join this group, then follow the directions below:

<http://groups.yahoo.com/group/chsclassof2010/>

Steps to joining a newsgroup:

1. Click one of the addresses above.
2. Click on the blue box "Join this Group."
3. Complete you ID options.
4. In the box, type a sentence identifying yourself as the parent or guardian of a student in that class or another reason for seeking membership to the group.
5. Choose your "stay in touch" option and message preference.
6. Type in the coded letters you see. If you can't read the coded letters, click the link under the box for a new set of letters.

If you are not a Yahoo user, you will need to create a free Yahoo account to proceed.

Canton High School is not responsible for the information or content shared in newsgroups.