

Canton Parents for Music

We're not objective when it comes to the Canton Music Program, and when one becomes acquainted with the dedicated faculty, the unprecedented levels of participation, and the award winning musical groups, it's easy to understand why. The members of Canton Parents for Music are parents, like yourself, who have seen their children's lives enriched through music and are committed to seeing the music program flourish. Your contribution to CPM helps purchase instruments, subsidizes visiting artist programs and defrays transportation costs. For those of you looking for a place to volunteer, CPM welcomes everyone, from the one time ticket taker to the creator of a fund raising initiative. Our volunteers all have one thing in common, they know that through their efforts, they have contributed to a program that touches more than half of the Canton student population. Please consider a gift of time or money (or both) and watch with us as our children and this remarkable program continue to thrive.
